

Complete electrical rebuild of Spiro® Tubeformer 1602.

Your Tubeformer 1602 has served you well for many years and now it's the right time to give it some attention.

Take the opportunity to have our experienced Spiro® service engineers perform a complete electrical upgrade of your machine so that we together can continue our journey into the future with the latest technology.

Benefits

- State of the art touch screen with unique Spiro® HMI Control system.
- Panel plate with easy symbols and buttons protected for rough environment.
- Multilingual – change language with only a button.
- QR code – download electrical drawing for your machine direct from display.
- Prepared for Spiro® Connect – our own developed entrance into Industry 4.0.
- Prepared for Remote Access – requires a Spiro® T-box.
- Complete new electric cabinet with new PLC, Frequency Converter, transformers etc.
- As option: Spiro® FLEX-control for ergonomic and easy access to all positions.

Your Trust is our Drive – since 1956